

Observation and Record Keeping

Audience	Early years Practitioners Childminders
Aims	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ The workshop will explore effective ways of recording observations of children in a child care setting. The session is aimed at new practitioners or childminders who have had little or no training/experience in writing observations. It can also serve as a useful refresher for practitioners who qualified several years ago. ❖ It aims: ❖ To consider the underlying principles of observation ❖ Develop an understanding of the implications of observation for individual children and groups ❖ To examine why observations are needed ❖ And the importance of them in meeting children's needs effectively ❖ To consider how evaluation influences future plans and decision making ❖ Links to Standard 3, 10 and 14
Every Child Matters Outcome(s)	Enjoying and Achieving
Session	Twilight, half or full day sessions
Venue	To be arranged
Training Provider Trainer	Alison Taylor Training Mandy Monk
Number of participants	Maximum: 20 Minimum: 10
Resources required	