

Print Rich Environment

Audience	Early Years Workers
Aims	This course aims to provide a practical, fresh approach and theoretical insight into developing a “print rich” environment. It covers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Our awareness of the variety and quantity of print around us</li> <li>❖ How this can be used creatively and educationally with young children</li> <li>❖ To consider the positive effects of environmental print on pre-reading skills</li> <li>❖ To recognise the valuable contribution that parents can make towards pre-reading skills</li> <li>❖ Positive impact of multicultural prints including bilingual text</li> <li>❖ The use of print to empower all children including those with SEN.</li> <li>❖ Links to Birth to Three and relevant Ofsted standards</li> </ul>
Every Child Matters Outcome(s)	Enjoying and Achieving Making a positive contribution
Session	Twilight, half or full day sessions
Venue	To be arranged
Training Provider Trainer	Alison Taylor Training Mandy Monk
Number of participants	Maximum: 20 Minimum: 10
Resources required	Can be negotiated